WORD (30 min)

2 Kings 4:23 NKJV

So he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither the New Moon nor the Sabbath." And she said, "It is well."

Ask a cell member to read 2 Kings 4:18-27

Question: How do people usually respond to circumstances such as the one the Shunamite woman faced?

Sometimes we ourselves are led to doubt the promises that God gave to us, when our circumstances do not reflect the promise. In John 10:10 Jesus tells us that the enemy's goal is to 'steal, kill and destroy'.

But as Christians we are "it is well" people. We are glass half-full people. We are "anything is possible" people. We are "I can do all things through Christ" people!

Question: The Shunamite woman did a few things to demonstrate her faith. Which one stands out for you? Why?

1. She revisited the place of promise of God (v21)
2. She ran to the Word of God (v22)
3. She rejected the doubt of others (v23)
4. She responded by faith (v24)
5. She aligned her words with her faith and not her situation (v26)
6. She remained a worshipper during impossibilities (v27)

Ask a cell member to read Matthew 9:20-22

Question: What is God's response to the faith of both the women we have read about?

- No matter how dead or delayed their promise seemed to be, both women still believed in the promise of God
- God honoured their faith and restored their promise

Something to reflect on: What area of your life currently needs your "It is well with me" confession? Your dream matters to God, your cry of help matters to God. No matter how impossible or difficult it may be today, choose to let your life shout be "It is well with me!"
