WORD

During the series so far, we looked at:

- Enabling power – power to be a witness
- Residing power
- Excellent power – excellence of soul
- Influential power – pertaining to influence and wealth

Today we will look at:

- Numerical power – Dunamis – power and resources arising from numbers
- Forceful power – power consisting of or resting upon armies, forces, hosts

Q: What will happen when we allow the power of God to flow through our lives?

A: We will have an enabling power to increase in resources, numbers, and force. So, when we pray or speak, we must be able to shift things. The force of the Holy Spirit comes through us because we receive power through the Holy Spirit.

Q: God is into numbers and the Dunamis power of the Lord enables us to grow in resources and increase in numbers. How are we as a homecell impacted and influenced by numbers every day of our lives and what is our responsibility? (A few members can share)

A: The church has been impacted negatively in numbers during the pandemic and many Christians have drifted from their faith. It is our responsibility as a homecell to recover all losses and pray for breakthrough to new levels of church commitment and attendance. We need to be a witness again and inviting our world to church. We need to pray for increase in numbers in all areas so that we can be a blessing to the church.

Ask a homecell member to read Luke 12:1 and Gen. 22:15-18 (NKJV)

Q: What examples can you think of in the Bible that relate to Jesus and numbers?

A: Jesus attracted large crowds. He multiplied 2 fishes and 5 loaves to feed 20 000. The fisherman's nets were filled to breaking capacity. When God sent Abraham the promise of his future it was not small and throughout scripture God blessed destinies and futures with large numbers.

Ask a homecell member to read Acts 2:36-41 (NKJV)

Q: How can we avail ourselves to be a conduit for God's power to flow through it?

A: The power lies in what we can move for God's kingdom. We must have a God encounter. Peter received the power even though he was a man who denied Christ now has the power and added 4000 to his ministry. We must not just sit and wait for the breakthrough to happen; we must move while we wait and when we speak about power for breakthrough, we need to also speak about the ability to handle larger numbers. We need to ask God to increase our capacity to handle heavens numbers.

Q: As a homecell what can we do to increase in numbers and force?

A:

- Pray for homecell members that got lost during the past two years and that we will recover all losses
- Pray for a breakthrough to new levels of church commitment and attendance
- That we will have a new level of financial stewardship
- Pray that we as a homecell will have a new level of members serving and getting involved
- That our trials will be turned into triumphs and that our valleys will turn into victories
