WORD

Ephesians 3:20 NKJV

Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,

“God is ready 24/7/365 to express his almighty, boundless, limitless, everlasting power through your life.” – Ps Aidan Jeffery

Ask a few cell members to read Hebrews 11:6 and Psalm 78:40-41

Q: What do these scriptures say to you personally about experiencing God's power in your life?

A: In Scripture, the manifest power of God was evident in the lives of those who gave God permission to demonstrate his ability.

So often, God's children think God won't or can't but until they believe that “God is” and that “God is able” they “limit the holy One of Israel”.

Ask a few cell members to read Psalm 78:42-43 and Ephesians 3:14-19

Q: How did the Israelites limit God? How should this encourage us as a homecell today?

A: The Israelites forgot God's mighty works and powerful deliverance.

We should always be reminded of who God is and what he has done.

We should pray for one another to stay grounded in God's never-ending love.

Ask a few cell members to read 1 Samuel 17:33, 45-47:

Q: What do we learn about fighting our battles from these scriptures?

A: When we go into life's battles with a “God is able” mindset, we bring giants down.

People might tell us we aren't able, and they're right, but we must remind them that God is able!

Ask a few cell members to read Matthew 9:27-28 and Luke 5:4-6

Q: What did these men do to receive the power of God?

A: They said "yes" to God! Every "yes" to God is a "yes" to God's power to work through you and for you.

Ask a cell member Luke 5:7-11

Q: How can we say "yes" to God as a homecell right now?

A: We can believe that God will use us to impact our world

A: We can trust God for breakthrough in all the goals we have set [share homecell goals]

Q: What areas of your life do you need to repent of doing things 100% in human effort?

What areas of your life are you in need of breakthrough and have run out of options or hope?

A: [Personal reflection].
