WORD

Acts 2:33 NKJV

"Therefore, being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He poured out this which you now see and hear."

As we celebrated Pentecost Sunday, Ps Aidan reminded us that the outpouring of the Holy Spirit brought a freshness in areas which are still significant today.

The outpouring brought freshness of vision to a young generation and freshness of dreams to our older generation:

Ask cell member to read Acts 2:17, 1 Corinthians 2:9-12 and Proverbs 29:18

Q: What do you understand by the statement "Sight is a function of the eye but vision is a function of the Spirit"?

Our physical eye sees only the natural, but the Holy Spirit reveals God's will, plan and purpose for our lives.

"It's time for our young generation to place a demand on the Holy Spirit for a fresh outpouring of vision." – Ps Aidan Jeffery

Q: Can you think of a time when God revealed something to you (gave you a vision or dream) that did not make sense in the natural?

[Allow one or two people to share.]

God is a God of purpose! The visions he gives us are for the benefit of others and for the advancement of his kingdom.

"It's time for our older generation to place a demand on the Holy Spirit for fresh dreams to the next phase of their lives." – Ps Aidan Jeffery

Ask a cell member to read Ezekiel 37:1-4

Q: What does God want us to do when our dreams and visions appear to be dead?

- We need to prophesy over dead dreams and dry visions
- Delay is not denial!
- God can bring dead dreams back to life and revive our vision again!
- As the oak tree waits in the acorn and the bird waits in the egg, so too do heaven's dreams wait in you - wanting you to act it out, live it out.

The outpouring of the Holy Spirit also brought a prophetic boldness to preach Jesus, to testify or witness to the outpouring and it brought a freshness of salvations.

Ask a few cell members to read Acts 1:8, Acts 2:21 and Acts 2:37-39

Q: According to these verses what are the signs that our homecell has received and is living out of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit?

- We have a boldness to share our faith
- When people ask us what's different about us, we share our testimony
- People are cut to the heart (not judged) and respond to the gospel message
- New believers are added daily to our homecell

Allow time for homecell members to pray for one another for a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit in their lives:

- A boldness to stand for Jesus
- A freshness of vision
- A newness of dreams
