WORD

Amos 9:13-15 MSG

"Yes indeed, it won't be long now." GOD's Decree. "Things are going to happen so fast your head will swim, one thing fast on the heels of the other. You won't be able to keep up. Everything will be happening at once-and everywhere you look, blessings! Blessings like wine pouring off the mountains and hills. I'll make everything right again for my people Israel: "They'll rebuild their ruined cities. They'll plant vineyards and drink good wine. They'll work their gardens and eat fresh vegetables. And I'll plant them, plant them on their own land. They'll never again be uprooted from the land I've given them." GOD, your God, says so.

Q: How long is God's "It won't be long now" and what does Amos teach us in this scripture?

- We don't quit in the process knowing that God is at work in us for purpose.
- To everything there is a season. A time for every purpose under heaven
- God's work is a process for a plant it is first the blade, then the leaf and then the full grain in the head
- During our season God is working behind the scenes our job is to stay in faith

Ask a homecell member to read Amos 9:14-15

Q: The prophet Amos talks about two kinds of right – how do you understand these two rights?

- I'll make everything right ... speaks of the first time He makes your heart of stone a heart of flesh when you accept Him as your Lord and Saviour
- I'll make everything right again ... speaks about the need to fix something or someone that once was fixed but has become broken again

Q: What do us as a homecell understand of the finished work of Jesus on the cross. What did that do for us and what does it continue doing for us?

- The goodness of God leads us to repentance
- God already made us right through Jesus
- When the Son sets you free you are free indeed
- It is not what I need to do to become right before God, but it is what Jesus did on the cross.
- Believe that Jesus gave His life. He did not remove the law, but He came to replace it with the sacrifice of the cross

Q: Why was the law left for us?

- The law was left as a reminder to us of what Jesus did for us on the cross.
- Look to Jesus – not the law to know that you live under His grace
- Every day is acceptable because of Jesus and His grace and glory covers us

Ask a homecell member to read John 8:10-11 TPT

Q What is the difference between law and grace or mercy?

- Law catches where mercy releases
- Law accuses where mercy pardons
- Law exhaust where mercy revitalizes
- We must hold onto Him in our season so that we can find Him and discover our purpose for our life journey

Ask a homecell member to read Rom. 6:20-23 and 7:1-6 AMP

Q What do we as a homecell understand about the “but now” reality of Jesus finished work on the cross?

- We were justified when we accepted Jesus as our Lord and saviour. It is instant and happens once
- Sanctification is where our journey start to clean up our act
- “But now” is the biggest revelation for all children of God as we now know that we are free to be children of God
- Christ removed the shackles, and I am not a slave to sin anymore but becoming a slave of God in freedom
