WORD

Ephesians 3:20 BSB

Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us,

Ask a homecell member to read Luke 5:7.

Whenever Jesus manifested overflow in the lives of His generation it was always preceded by partnership.

“Purposeful provision is always preceded by purposeful partnership.” Ps Aidan Jeffery

Ask a few homecell members to read the following Scriptures. For each one, ask:

Q: What stands out for you in this example of purposeful partnership?

- 1. Philippians 4:10-19 The Philippian church partnered with Paul.
The promise of provision is always exciting and breeds an atmosphere of hope.
- 2. 2 Corinthians 9:6-8 The Corinthian members partnered with the early church.
Purposeful generosity preceded purposeful provision.
Ask a homecell member to read Isaiah 32:8.
- 3. John 6:5-13 The young boy partnered with Jesus to feed the 5000.
What seems pitiful to some is powerful to the Lord.

Ask a homecell member to read Mark 8:14-21.

Q: What was the difference between where the disciples were focusing their attention and where Jesus was focusing His attention? What did Jesus remind them of?

- The disciples were focused on their natural circumstances. Jesus was encouraging them to discern spiritually what God could do.
- One of the schemes of the enemy is to deceive you into thinking God has forgotten you in your battle.
- It's time for us to be reminded again of the goodness of God in every situation.

Ask a few homecell members to read John 14:18 And Ephesians 1:5-16.

Q: What makes us heirs to the promises of God?

- We have been adopted as sons and daughters of God!
- An orphan is not heir to an inheritance only a son and daughter is.

Have you partnered with Jesus and His kingdom purpose for your life? Are you facing a battle and forgotten what Jesus did for you in the past?

God is reminding you to place your trust in Him again. Our God is a good God who wants good things for your life. Put your trust in Him today!
